

Innovation Leader Code of Conduct

Innovation Leader expects all attendees, speakers, sponsors and volunteers at our events to agree with the following code of conduct. We will enforce this code throughout the event and we expect cooperation from all to help ensure a safe environment for everybody.

We are dedicated to providing a harassment free environment for everyone. Harassment includes but is not limited to the following: offensive verbal comments related to gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, religion, inappropriate physical contact, unwelcome sexual attention, threats or acts of violence. Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for any event venue, including talks, workshops, parties, Twitter and other online media. We do not tolerate harassment of any kind towards attendees.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. If a participant engages in harassing behavior, the conference organisers can take any action they deem appropriate, including removal from the event with no refund.

If you believe you have experienced or witnessed any of the above or have any other concerns, please contact a member of the Innovation Leader team immediately. Should we feel that the venue security or local law enforcement are needed we will assist in contacting them on your behalf.

Any questions regarding the above Code of Conduct should be directed to one of the Innovation Leader team members at events@innovationleader.com.
